

Jane Smith
123 Smith Street
Smithville, Vic. 3123

25 June 2021

Hon. Christian Porter
Minister for Social Services
P.O. Box 6022
House of Representatives
Parliament House
Canberra, ACT. 2600

Notice of Demand

Dear Christian,

It is My Will that any entity employed by Centrelink, or any other like service provider, which has the responsibility of distributing any allowances to the care provider of a child, for the purpose of financially assisting in the support of that child, do so strictly following the law of the land, specifically, section 51(xxiii)(A) of the Commonwealth Constitution, which clearly restricts any form of civil conscription in order to access social services or financial support.

It is further My Will that The Executive complies with their obligations under Section 2 of the Commonwealth Constitution, to promote religion and education and to protect from violence and injustice.

NOTICE

From this the 25th day of January, in the year of our Lord 2021 that Jane Smith is under the protection of section 83.4 of the Commonwealth Criminal Code Act 1995 and is acting as power of attorney for an infant child, whom goes by the name of John Smith, for the purpose of politically protesting any mandatory vaccination imposed upon the infant child so that the child can access any education or any like social service.

The parent, or care giver, Jane Smith, of the child, John Smith, is further under the protection of 51(xxiii)(A) of the Commonwealth Constitution in respect of continuing to receive allowances, for the benefit of supporting the child, irrespective of the child's vaccination status.

Take Notice that any breach of this Notice by any person may attract a breach of section 83.4 of the Commonwealth Criminal Code Act 1995, which may lead to prosecution in a court exercising Federal Jurisdiction.

Take Notice that any and all entities involved in the vaccination of the infant child in this Notice will be held personally liable for a period of 15 years from the day of the enforced vaccination with respect to any detrimental health effects that may take place as a direct result of the enforced vaccination.

Declared in front of a court exercising summary jurisdiction being a Justice of the Peace.

Signed

Signed

Jane Smith

Witness

Dated

Dated